

DetailBackMonday 21 November 2005, 16:12*DNS problem

Severity	high
Effects	All internet services
Effect on service	Traffic degradation
Swisscom TT	220826
Responsible	Swisscom
Remarks	Please be informed that the connection to our DNS servers is currently instable. All related services maybe interrupted or encountering performance issues. Our 3level is working with high priority on this problem.

Update

21.11.2005	17:49	Please be informed that google has resolved the denial of service attack and their services are running normally again. We are observing the situation.
21.11.2005	17:39	Therefore we have suspended our trouble tickets and are observing the situation.
21.11.2005	17:32	Please be informed that at the moment all our dns servers and the related services are working again. The cause for the massive issues is a denial of service attack aimed at google. At the moment google can't be queried because of this. We will keep you informed about further steps.