NOTICE OF RIGHTS IN 2006 FIFA WORLD CUP™: INFRONT SPORTS & MEDIA

Dear Sirs,

We act for the Infront Sports & Media group of companies ("Infront") who have the exclusive right to broadcast, transmit and exploit by all electronic media the matches of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ (the "FIFA World Cup"). These exclusive rights include the broadcasting and transmission of audio sound and/or moving images of the FIFA World Cup over the Internet.

Infront anticipates the possibility of unauthorised streaming and downloading of FIFA World Cup matches and other unauthorised use of clips or images of the matches. Infront and its agents are taking active and strong measures to deter and prevent such unlawful activities, both civilly and criminally.

Should your service be used for the purpose of such unlawful activities we will alert you as a matter of urgency and trust you will assist in taking down any infringing material so you can avoid any joint liability for such infringements, as well as assisting us in identifying the infringers.

RECHTSANWÄLTE / AVOCATS

We very much wish to see the Internet as a platform for the transmission of major live sporting events such as the FIFA World Cup and hope that all responsible ISPs will agree that preventing unauthorised transmissions will encourage the growth and development of the Internet in this sphere. To assist this purpose, please let us know if you have any questions about our client's rights or any other matter which will enable you to take the quickest possible action should your service be used for unlawful transmission of the FIFA World Cup in whole or part. Please also let us know if there is any particular person or persons at your organisation whom we should speak to and who should be a first point of contact in the event that we learn of a problem connected with your service.

We look forward to hearing from you and to having your support in addressing what we hope you agree is a common problem.

Yours faithfully,

Dr. Urs Zenhäusern

Dr. Nicolas Passadelis
